

Do it yourself guide to

Deck Staining

Step by step instructions

Wood cleaning & stain removal

Application guides for any stain

Avoid needless spending

DAN SCHWADE

Deck Staining Made Simple

Here are just a few samples of what you will have...

- Different Types of Wood Protection

 - Clear Protection (Sealer)

 - Semi-Transparent Stains and Oils

 - Solid Stains

- Assessing and Organizing Your Project

 - New Cedar deck

 - New Pressure treated deck

 - New Hardwood

 - Solid stain on decks

 - Semi-transparent or clear finish on decks

- Treating New Cedar Decks

 - Do's and don'ts to keep a beautiful cedar deck

- Removing/Stripping Stain and Other Finishes

 - How to remove stains and other finishes

- Cleaning and Restoring Your Deck

 - How to easily clean and restore wood

- Sanding and Other Prep Work

 - Replacing wood

 - Prep work for semi-transparent stains and oils

 - Prep work for solid stains

- Applying Clear Sealers to Your Deck

 - Inexpensive tools

 - Simple techniques that make a beautiful job

- Applying Semi-Transparent Finishes to Your Deck

 - Do's and don'ts

 - Avoid needless spending

 - How to avoid lap marks

 - How to stain with any products

 - Save countless hours on needless labour

- Applying Solid Finishes to Your Deck

 - Inexpensive ways to apply solid stains

 - Achieving a beautiful and long lasting finish

 - Save time, labour, and money

Never roll the stain unless you have someone else back-brushing behind you.

And Much More...