

Do it yourself guide to

Fence Staining

Step by step instructions

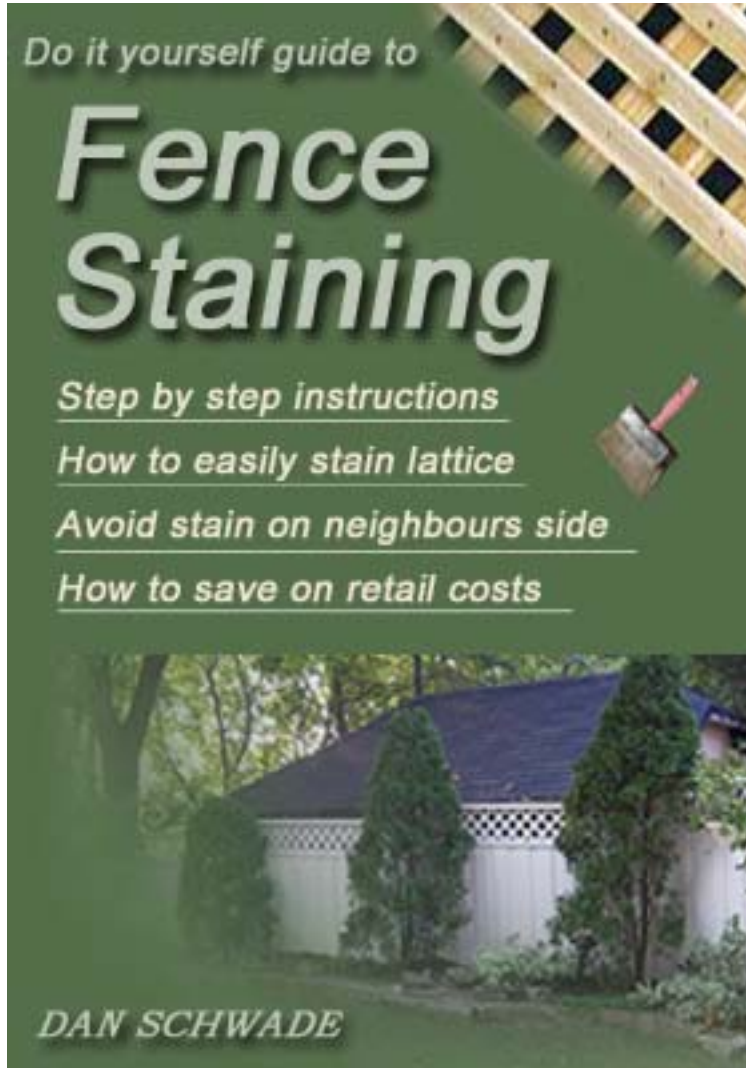

How to easily stain lattice

Avoid stain on neighbours side

How to save on retail costs

DAN SCHWADE

Fence Staining Made Simple

Here are just a few samples of what you will have...

- Different Types of Wood Protection

 - Clear Protection (Sealer)

 - Semi-Transparent Stains and Oils

 - Solid Stains

- Assessing and Organizing Your Project

 - New Cedar fence

 - New Pressure treated fence

 - New Hardwood

 - Solid stain on fences

 - Semi-transparent or clear finish on fences

- Treating New Cedar Fences

 - Do's and don'ts to keep a beautiful cedar fence

- Removing/Stripping Stain and Other Finishes

 - How to remove stains and other finishes

- Cleaning and Restoring Your Fence

 - How to easily clean and restore wood

- Sanding and Other Prep Work

 - Replacing wood

 - Prep work for semi-transparent stains and oils

 - Prep work for solid stains

- Applying Clear Sealers to Your Fence

 - Applying sealers with a sprayer

 - Simple techniques that make a beautiful job

- Applying Semi-Transparent Finishes to Your Fence

 - Do's and don'ts

 - Avoid needless spending

 - How to avoid spraying neighbours side of fence

 - Save countless hours on needless labour

- Applying Solid Finishes to Your Fence

 - When to use a brush, roller or sprayer

 - How to easily stain lattice

 - How to produce a lasting finish

And Much More...